Located at the very heart of Split, the second largest city in Croatia and the hub of Dalmatia, this fashionable and reputable 4 star Hotel 500 meters from the sea stands out for its exceptional location, private parking facilities, convenient access to all major attractions and city institutions, and its mere 10-minute walk from the bustling city center. With a warm and welcoming ambiance, the hotel is dedicated to providing personalized services tailored to the needs of both business travelers and tourists.

The hotel boasts 33 comfortable rooms adorned with modern decor and furnished with natural materials. It also features a cozy breakfast room, a conference space accommodating up to 35 people, perfect for meetings, presentations, and smaller conferences. Our array of services is designed to create a homely experience during your stay.

All rooms come furnished with LCD flat-panel televisions and spacious beds featuring anatomic mattresses. Hotel offers a variety of room options, including double rooms, triple rooms, and family rooms, while single guests are, of course, equally welcome.

Despite the hotel's relatively recent construction (inaugurated in 2001), our commitment to excellence has prompted us to renovate the rooms and bathrooms multiple times to ensure they consistently meet our high standards.

Additionally, hotel provides comprehensive WiFi coverage throughout the entire hotel.

Dedicated reception operates 24/7, always ready to assist the guests. Staff is eager to help with booking excursions, securing dinner reservations, or arranging any other services our guests may require. They are equally capable of addressing any inquiries you may have, offering valuable advice, and providing information about the charming city of Split.
